

Prints from our 2008
"Photo of the Month" competitions

Pensive or just plain bored and waiting patiently, this young girl is portrayed in a sensitive portrait by Stephanie DeBolt. Photo of the Month January 2008

A moonflower showing structural pattern in its petals, taken by Don Hershberger
Photo of the Month, February 2008

"Ben" on a good hair day. Sharol Alexander's pal photographed by Char Rule.
Photo of the Month, March 2008

This photo was taken after steam jets increased the humidity in the tropical plants greenhouse at Meijer Gardens in Grand Rapids. A butterfly in flight on the left side was one of many available to photograph there that month.

Photo of the Month, April 2008 by Don Hershberger

Surfers heading for the waves. A California photo by Jeff Longenbaugh.
Photo of the Month, May 2008

A flowering head of filipendula or "Queen of the Prairie".
Photographed in his garden by Don Hershberger. Photo of the Month, July 2008

Wonderful family photography of father and son by Jenni Kulp
Photo of the Month, August 2008

A train in the Canadian Rockies photographed by Jeff Longenbaugh.
Photo of the Month, September 2008

Dancers in a Mexican Festival, Photo of the Month, October, 2008
Photographed by Stephanie Iniesta

A firefighter memorial statue on Elkhart's Riverwalk, photographed with in situ lighting at dusk.
Photo of the Month, November 2008, by James Kruis